CLASS FEATURES

Spellcasting
You can cast spells using Wisdom as your spellcasting ability. You prepare a number of spells from the Druid spell list each day. You can use a Druidic Focus as your Spellcasting Focus. You can cast any prepared Druid spell as a ritual if it has the Ritual tag.

Druidic
You know Druidic, the secret language of druids. You can speak the language and use it to leave hidden messages. You always have the Speak with Animals spell prepared.

Spells Always Prepared: Speak with Animals

Primal Order: Magician
You know one extra cantrip from the Druid spell list. In addition, your mystical connection to nature gives you a bonus to your Intelligence (Arcana or Nature) checks. The bonus equals your Wisdom modifier (minimum bonus of +1).

Bonus Cantrip: Poison Spray

Wild Shape
As a Bonus Action, you magically assume the shape of a beast you have seen. You can use this feature a number of times equal to your Wisdom modifier (minimum of once), and you regain all expended uses when you finish a Long Rest. You stay in beast form for a number of hours equal to half your Druid level (rounded down). Your temporary hit points in beast form equal your Druid level. You revert if you drop to 0 temporary hit points, use a Bonus Action, or are incapacitated. While in beast form, your game statistics are replaced by the beast's, but you retain your alignment, personality, Intelligence, Wisdom, and Charisma scores. You can't cast spells in beast form (until Beast Spells at level 18). Known forms start at a limited number and grow as you level.

Wild Companion
You can expend a spell slot or a use of Wild Shape (no action required) to cast Find Familiar without Material components. The familiar is a Fey and disappears after a number of hours equal to half your Druid level.
